

I am in strong disagreement with the limit of 6 months that an ex-offender may stay in a halfway house. This would not be a deterrent from inmates committing acts that would result in their returning to prison. They would not be rooted back into the community, church and family.

Blessings,

Frank Weatherly

Field Director, N.E. Florida

Prison Fellowship

11362-13 San Jose Blvd., Suite 153

Jacksonville, FL 32223

904 288-8588

904 288-8085 fax

Peace: God is in control,

In that perfect moment,

He will reveal His purpose (in everything)